3. TEAM PLACEMENT-

- a. Players returning to the Shetland Division in which they played the previous year will usually remain on the same team unless requested otherwise by a parent on his/her application.
- b. Candidates shall be placed on teams in accordance with the player draft system shown in the PONY Blue Book and rules set down by the League.
- c. Players shall play with the same team assigned to them by the League.

PLAYER SAFETY & EXPECTATIONS

1. INJURY- If a player receives an injury during the season, which requires medical attention rendered by a physician, they must present a doctor's release to the team Manager before they may be allowed to continue playing baseball.
2. SAFETY- Female players participating in League activities shall be accompanied by a parent, legal guardian, or an adult female at all practices, games and team functions.
3. DRESS CODE- All players shall wear their League-issued uniform, jersey, hat and matching pants and socks to all games.
4. SUSPENSION- A player may be suspended (for not more than one (1) game without Board approval; however, division VP must be notified) or removed from his/her team and the League (Board approval required) for reasons shown below:
  - a. Failure to meet two (2) consecutive practice sessions or two (2) regular League games without the Manager's permission.

- b. Using foul or abusive language unbecoming an athlete and ladies and gentlemen.
  - c. Not being well groomed, including a clean uniform.
  - d. Disciplinary problems
  - e. Intentional throwing of bats or equipment.
  - f. Possession of concealed weapons, or use of or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
  - g. Ejection from a game, for any reason. In this event, the player will serve a one (1)- game suspension pending review of the Board, during his or her next scheduled game, and may be required to appear before the Board for further disciplinary action.
5. PLAYER BOARD REVIEW- In cases where the player must appear before the Board, they must be accompanied by their Manager and a parent/guardian. Removal of a player from the League is a last resort as set forth by the Pony National Blue Book.

ARTICLE XI – Selection of Players - The Draft System

1. The Orangevale Pony ball, Inc. shall use the player draft system as shown in the PONY Blue Book and rules set forth in this article to fill teams from season to season (this does not apply to the Shetland Divisions).

TEAM ASSIGNMENT & PLAYER ELIGIBILITY

1. COMPLETE TEAMS
  - a. Whole/complete teams outside this “core” area but within defined League boundaries may be added to the League at the Board’s discretion and will be exempt from “Player Selection – The Draft System” By-Laws for the first year with the League, but will be subject to all other existing By-Laws herein, League policies, and League commitments.
  - b. The Board, at its discretion, may allow a whole/complete team from outside Orangevale Pony ball’s “core” geographic area to join the League in order to better promote the League in other communities. Orangevale Pony ball’s “core” geographic area is defined as being within:
    - i. Placer County line (northern boundary)
    - ii. US Highway 50 (southern boundary)
    - iii. Auburn-Folsom Road/Folsom Blvd. (eastern boundary)
    - iv. Fair Oaks Blvd. to Sunrise (western boundary)
2. ELIGIBLE PLAYER SELECTION- Eligible players shall be selected by the Managers and Coaches under the guidance of the League Player Agent and the Division Vice President in strict accordance with the PONY Blue Book, unless superseded by local Orangevale Pony ball By-Laws.

- a. RETURNING PROTECTED PLAYERS- Each team may protect a maximum of four (4) players in the Pinto, Mustang, Bronco, and Pony divisions, who DID participate in the regular League season the previous year in Orangevale Pony ball. A total of four (4) players may be protected: one (1) for the Manager, one (1) for a Head Coach, and two (2) additional players that played on that Manager's team the previous season. Managers and Head Coaches must protect their own child (or children).
- b. PROTECTED PLAYER LIST- Managers shall submit a list of protected players to their Division Vice Presidents and the League Registrar at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to player evaluations (tryouts). All protected players must be paid in full one (1) week prior to League evaluations (tryouts).
- c. PROTECTED DRAFT ORDER- All automatic draft choices (protected players) shall be placed on a team as the team's primary (first round, second round, etc.) draft choices before that team can select any other players.
- d. SIBLING RULE- A non-protected player that is chosen in the draft with a sibling also eligible for draft selection shall have that sibling become an automatic draft choice and must be taken in the next two rounds, if requested by a parent on his/her application. Step or previous relationship children are not protected under the sibling rule unless they reside in the same residence. If a Manager chooses to protect one sibling and the parent requests the other sibling to be on the same team the Manager must protect the other sibling or they will be left to a
  - a. non-automatic draft choice.
- e. WAITING LIST- If all teams are filled to twelve (12) players, the candidates remaining on the Division Vice President roster shall become a "Waiting List". Should a player on a team leave that team permanently for any legitimate reason (meaning that the player was not coerced to quit the team), the first candidate on the "Waiting List" shall be placed on that team. This procedure shall be followed as vacancies occur. If a player leaves the League mid-season and returns, he or she shall return to the team after an opening occurs.
- f. FILLING VACANCIES- If the list of candidates is exhausted and the teams are not filled, vacancies shall be filled as follows: The names of all new candidates who sign up after draft night and not later than 48 hours prior to League Orientation, shall be placed in a hat. Resuming draft order where left off on draft night, teams will fill the remaining roster.
- g. ELIGIBLE PLAYERS REGISTERED LATE- Eligible players registering after evaluations up through draft night shall be selected by "hat draw" continuing in the same draft order once all evaluated players are placed.
- h. PLAYING UP- A player who has requested to play up is not eligible to be drafted

- before all age appropriate players have been selected. This can be adjusted on the night of the draft by the League Player Agent if registration numbers allow it.
- i. TEAM MEMBERSHIP- Each player thus drafted shall remain a member of that team for the remainder of the season unless traded or released.
    - i. TRADES are only permitted on the night of the draft with the approval of the Division Vice President and League Player Agent.
      - 1. Only players assigned to a team on draft night may be traded, and only after the draft is completed. Exception: Players drafted to a team that does not yet have a Manager may not be traded.
    - ii. RELEASES may only be obtained through consent of the Divisional Vice President with Board approval, and only after sufficient cause is shown.
    - iii. EXCESS MANAGERS & POTENTIAL PROTECTED PLAYERS-
      - 1. In the event that the number of Managers exceeds the number required to place all the potential applicants on teams, some Managers will not be assigned teams. All potential protected players not assigned to a team will be returned to the draft pool.
  - j. OVPB reserves the right to bypass the draft order to assemble teams under extenuating circumstances as determined by Division Vice President and League Player Agent.
  - k. MANAGER REPLACEMENT- In the event where the Manager does not return or does not want to serve as Manager, the Head Coach from the same team may assume all draft rights and responsibilities vacated by the Manager with majority vote approval by the board.

SELECTION ORDER

- 1. DRAFT SELECTION ORDER- The selection order by which a team enters the draft is determined by a point system and the number of protected players assigned to that team's roster before the draft.
  - a. The team with the fewest number of protected players will draft first until that team has an equal number of players as the other teams.
  - b. In the event an equal number of players (protected and drafted) are assigned to a team, then a point system shall be used to determine draft order. The team with the lowest total points drafts first that round; then second lowest total team points drafts second, etc.
    - i. 5 points = Returning player that played (or was ranked) as a "First" or "A" team All-Star in the current division during the previous season
    - ii. 4 points = Returning player that played (or was ranked) as a "Second" or "B"

- team All-Star in the current division during the previous season
  - iii. 3 points = Returning player that played (or was ranked) as a “First” or “A” team All-Star in the lower division during the previous season or a Recruit, Shetland All-Star is 2 points.
  - iv. 2 points = Returning player that played (or was ranked) as a “Second” or “B” team All-Star in the lower division during the previous season or is a second or third year (by age) player in the Division
  - v. 1 point = Returning player that played in the lower division during the previous season or is a first year (by age) player in the Division
  - vi. Final assignment of point value for each player shall be determined by the League Player Agent and Division Vice President.
  - vii. In the event that the League Player Agent has a player in the Division, final assignment shall be made by the Division Vice President and any active Board Member that does not have a player in the Division.
- c. The draft order is determined in the first round when all teams have equal number of players shall set the draft order for the remainder of the draft.
  - d. If two (2) or more teams have an equal number of players (protected and drafted) assigned to their team (prior to the round that the draft order is “set”) and the teams have an equal number of points, then a coin flip (2 teams) or hat draw (>2 teams) will determine the draft order for that round.
  - e. Once the draft order is set, teams will begin to fill their rosters in a “non-serpentine” order until all teams have an equal number of players.
  - f. Teams with more assigned players than other teams will not select a player in the draft until there are no teams with fewer players than them.
  - g. Once all teams have an equal number of players, the draft will continue in a “serpentine” fashion until there are no players left.

PLAYER NOTIFICATION

1. PLAYER NOTIFICATION- Managers and/or Coaches must notify each player on his/her team within 48 hours to notify them of their placement on his/her team.

ARTICLE XII – Rules of Play

1. The PONY NATIONAL RULES governing local League play shall be adopted according to the National Constitution.
2. The "OFFICIAL RULES of Shetland, Pinto, Mustang, Bronco, Pony, Colt, Palomino League Ball" as issued each year shall govern play of Orangevale Pony ball, except as modified by Orangevale Pony ball Local Rules.

ARTICLE XIII – Schedules

1. SCHEDULE DEVELOPMENT- Games, places and dates to play shall be set up by the League Scheduler and shall be reviewed by the League Player Agent or Vice President. This overall review shall be for the purpose of ensuring coordinated and balanced schedules for each division and at each field.
2. GAME CANCELLATION NOTIFICATION- The League Scheduler shall notify Division Vice Presidents, Division Coordinators, the Umpire coordinator, and Snack Bar Chairperson of game cancellations.
3. RESCHEDULING-
  - a. Postponed games shall be rescheduled by the League Scheduler upon approval from the division Vice Presidents at the earliest possible date. Sunday play is permitted; however, pitching waivers are not permitted at any time.
  - b. If a game is cancelled it shall be rescheduled on the first available day as designated by the League (which may be in the same week as the originally scheduled game).
  - c. All postponed or cancelled games must be given every effort to be played prior to the end of the regular League season.

ARTICLE XIV – All-Star Teams

1. OBJECTIVE- The objective of the All-Star Teams is twofold. The first is to select teams consisting of players and Managers with the best baseball playing ability in the League. The second objective is to induce sportsmanship-like competition among the players in the League so as to compete for positions on the All-Star Teams.

ORANGEVALE PONYBALL ALL-STAR TEAMS

1. TEAM DEVELOPMENT- At least one (1) All-Star Team shall be selected from each division in Orangevale Pony ball.
  - a. If there are four (4) or fewer teams in a division, that division shall be limited to fielding one (1) All-Star Team. If a division consists of five (5) or more teams, with Board approval a second All-Star Team may be selected.
2. ALL-STAR TEAM- Each All-Star Team shall consist of one (1) Manager, one (1) Coach, one (1) business agent and a minimum of twelve (12) to a maximum of fifteen (15) players. Up to five (5) alternate players may be selected to be available for play in the event a player leaves the team.
3. ALL-STAR PLAYER- An “All-Star” player shall be defined as a player who has been elected to an All-Star Team by the All-Star Selection Committee.
4. ALL-STAR FEES- There will be an All-Star player registration fee to be determined annually by the board.

ALL-STAR PLAYER, MANAGER & COACH SELECTION

1. The following rules shall apply to selection of All-Star Teams for each of the divisions in Orangevale Pony ball:
  - a. ALL-STAR SELECTION COMMITTEE shall be comprised of the Manager for each team in the division. Only voting members of the "All-Star Selection Committee" will be allowed to vote during the All-Star selection process.
  - b. ALL-STAR PLAYER NOMINATION AND SELECTION: The selection of All-Star players will be made at the halfway point of the regular season. The League Player Agent and Division Vice President shall supervise the voting for selection of each All-Star Team.
  - c. The following rules shall apply to the nomination and selection of players for each All-Star Team:
    - i. i. NOMINATIONS-
      - Each Manager in the division shall nominate players from their team that they feel have earned All-Star consideration.
      - Nominations shall be submitted to the Division Vice President at least 48 hours prior to the All-Star selection meeting.
      - Each voting member shall be allowed 2 "write-in" votes in the event that players that they believe are deserving of All-Star consideration have not been nominated by their Manager. Blank lines shall be provided on the ballot for this purpose.
    - ii. ALL-STAR ROSTERS- Once the selection process is complete, the list of selected All-Star Players, Managers, Coaches and alternates shall be final and shall be reported to the Board.
    - iii. Players elected to the "A" All-Star Team must be contacted within three (3) calendar days from the election date, and players elected to the "B" All-Star Team (if applicable) must not be contacted until after the 5th calendar day from the election date. Within that first 3-day window, if any players selected to the "A" team decline to participate for any reason, the "A" team manager may select a player who was elected to the "B" team to fill the available roster slots, and the "B" team manager may select players from the list of alternates to fill any resulting vacancies on the "B" team roster. After this initial period, if any additional "A" team players drop out, the "A" team manager may continue to select players from the "B" team roster to fill those vacancies only through the end of the League Championship Playoff Tournament. If any "A" team players drop from All-Stars after the end of the regular season, those vacancies may only be filled from the list of alternates.
      - If any player who was originally elected to the "B" team declines to participate for any reason, that player shall not be eligible to fill a vacancy on the “A” team. That player will be disqualified from participation on any Orangevale Pony ball All-Star Team for that season.

- If any player who was originally elected to the “A” team declines to participate for any reason, that player shall not be eligible to fill a vacancy on the “B” team. That player will be disqualified from participation on any Orangevale Pony ball All-Star Team for that season.

d. ALL-STAR MANAGER AND COACH SELECTION:

i. MANAGER SELECTION- Priority will go to the manager who wins the TOC in that respective division upon board approval. If the winning manager declines, priority will go to the 2nd place finisher manager. If the 2nd place manager declines, the Board will decide the All-Star manager determined by applications received from that division managers.

ii. COACH SELECTION- The elected managers shall then select their coaching staff (Head Coach and Business Agent) from the Board-approved list of applicants.

i. iii. If Board intervention is required the League All-Star manager selection guidelines may consist of (in no particular order):

- previous All-Star experience within the League, previous All-Star record within the League
- previous coaching/managing experience within the League, current regular season record
- League and playing rules violations general body complaints/compliments, game ejections
- field conduct and sportsmanship

ii. MANAGER REPLACEMENT- If an All-Star Manager quits/resigns, for whatever reason, then a replacement Manager shall be appointed by the Board.

OWNERSHIP OF ALL-STAR AWARDS

2. AWARDS- All-Star players, Managers and Coaches may keep any awards (trophies, pins etc.) earned during All-Star play; however, if a team wins a PONY district, regional, sectional and/or world series tournament and is awarded a championship banner, that banner shall remain property of Orangevale Pony ball and shall be delivered to the League office immediately following tournament play.
